For the energetic there are splendid walks along the Coastal Path, the famous Torrs walks or swimming from the Tunnel beaches and coves. For those who prefer to take things a little bit easier, one can simply stroll through the delightful gardens or while away an hour or two watching the ever-changing harbour scene. A boat trip is a "must" during your stay to see the spectacular cliffs of North Devon or visit the magical Lundy Island.

Situated in one of the best positions in Ilfracombe, the Imperial Hotel overlooks Wildersmouth beach and the splendid Landmark Theatre and Conference Centre; it's close to the High Street and only a short, almost level walk from the harbour.

Edgcumbe Avenue, Newquay, Cornwall, TR7 2NH.

Newquay is Cornwall's premier holiday resort boasting some of the finest coastline and beaches in Europe. Although well known as Britain's surfing capital, there are many other activities and the surrounding countryside has an endless wealth of fascinating places to visit. The town is an ancient one, dating back from the fifteenth century when a new quay was constructed. The heart of the town is the old harbour; it spreads along the cliff tops which stand behind the eleven magnificent sandy beaches. Newquay offers wonderful cliff and beach walks, a picturesque harbour and the variety of activities you would expect from such a major resort.

Very well situated close to the Great Western and Tolcarne beaches, the Eliot Hotel is only a few yards from the seafront and within easy walking distance of the shops and harbour. The lounges provide a great place to relax after a busy day exploring.

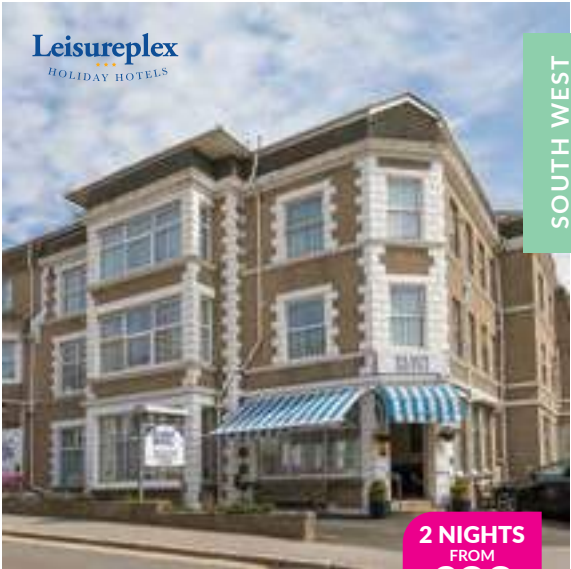

Along the coast from Newquay you will find many towns and villages which make perfect places to stop and take in the stunning scenery.

 Victoria Parade, Torquay, South Devon, TQ1 2BE.

Torquay is one of Britain's most famous resorts, situated at the heart of 22 miles of unspoilt coastline, often referred to as the "English Riviera". It has a mild climate, sparkling blue waters and in its beautiful public gardens you will see subtropical plants and palm trees. Torquay has something to offer everyone: by day you can relax on one of the clean sandy beaches, explore the bustling harbour and marina and the excellent shops or if you are feeling more active there are lovely walks, or activities such as sailing, bowls, golf or fishing. By night you'll be spoilt for choice: there are theatres and cabarets and of course you'll see the lights illuminating the promenade reflected across the beautiful bay.

Wonderfully situated on the harbour side, with principal shops and theatre a gentle stroll away, the Regina Hotel is perfect for exploring all the resort has to offer. The lounge overlooks the pretty harbour and part of the Regina is particularly interesting as it was the home for three years to the poet, Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

There are many local attractions including Paignton Zoo, Babbacombe Model Village, Kent's Cavern, Torbay Steam Railway and Cockington thatched village.

CAVENDISH HOTEL

Exmouth

T 01395 272528 E cavendish.exmouth@leisureplex.co.uk
 The Esplanade, Exmouth, Devon, EX8 1BE.

Exmouth developed as a resort in Georgian times and was once probably the most select seaside resort in Britain, home to such famous people as Lady Nelson and Lady Byron. Nowadays it offers a rich mixture of immaculate sands, lovely gardens, a busy marina and a wide range of sports facilities that combine to make it an excellent resort for all ages and interests. To the South the resort overlooks Lyme Bay, while to the West it looks across the estuary of the River Exe to the Haldon Hills and Dawlish Warren. There are boat trips aplenty but also lots to do on dry land with good shops, a museum, many old pubs and good walks at every turn. For the more active there is a public swimming pool, golf, and all forms of water sports including a sailing school.

Popular with sightseers, the Cavendish Hotel is wonderfully situated on the level seafront overlooking Exmouth's fine golden sands, a few minutes' walk from the shops. There are fantastic sea views from many of the front facing rooms.

The coast from Exmouth to Dorset has been officially ranked alongside the Grand Canyon and Great Barrier Reef as one of the natural wonders of the world!

SHANKLIN HOTEL

Isle of Wight, Shanklin

T 01983 862286 E shanklin.shanklin@leisureplex.co.uk
Clarendon Road, Shanklin, Isle of Wight, PO37 6DP.

Shanklin boasts a long, safe sandy beach which lies at the foot of the spectacular cliffs on which most of the town is situated. The two are connected by a cliff lift. The traditional seaside part of town blends into the picturesque thatched cottages of Shanklin Old Town at the head of the impressive Shanklin Chine. The delightful nature trail through the Chine is not to be missed and includes a surprising relic of the Second World War – a section of PLUTO, the Pipeline Under The Ocean, which was used to pump fuel under the sea to France for the Normandy landings. Although a quieter resort than Sandown, it nevertheless has its own theatre, lively pubs and entertainments.

Gardens in Shanklin are a delight to visit. Tower Gardens and Rylstone Gardens run alongside the Chine, or take a stroll in the Big Mead, adjacent to historic St. Blasius Church, or along the spectacular coastal paths to Sandown or Bonchurch.

One of the best known hotels on the island, the Shanklin is situated in Shanklin town with superb views from its magnificent Starlite Restaurant and many bedrooms. Shanklin Old Village and the beach are just a few minutes' walk away.

Officially the sunniest town in Britain, Bognor Regis is an old-school seaside resort in West Sussex. It became fashionable in the reign of George III and has been frequented by royalty on numerous occasions. The resort is flat and has an excellent promenade walk. Enjoy the live music from the bandstand in the charming grounds of Hotham Park, take a short trip to Arundel which is home to Arundel Castle and Gardens, or explore the Tudor Market Cross and Norman Cathedral surrounded by a host of independent shops. The South Downs National Park is also just a stone's throw away and well worth a visit.

On the beach between Bognor Regis and Aldwick lies the wreck of a floating pontoon – part of the Mulberry Harbour which was destined to be towed across to Normandy on D-Day Jun 6, 1944 and was washed up on the beach shortly after D-Day.

Situated in a delightfully sunny spot on the seafront with extensive lawns and superb Channel views, the Royal Norfolk Hotel is an exceptional Georgian building dating from the 1830's and has been visited by the Emperor Napoleon III of France and various descendants of Queen Victoria. It is just a short walk from the pier and shops.

Scarborough is arguably the oldest seaside resort in Britain – it was a resort more than half a century before Regency Brighton. But Scarborough is much older even than this – a cursory glance at the headland which divides Scarborough's two bays reveals the impressive medieval castle. The name Scarborough has Viking heritage and the castle grounds conceal the remains of a Roman signal station. The busy harbour is home to a welter of fishing boats and there are the usual seaside pursuits on the South Bay promenade which leads to the Spa. The steep hillsides are beautifully landscaped and there are many attractive parks and gardens, lots of shops and restaurants and of course the famous Stephen Joseph Theatre.

The Cumberland Hotel is very well situated on the South Cliff just a few minutes walk from the Spa complex, beach and town centre with excellent views of the town from the North facing rooms.

Just along the coast from Scarborough is the popular seaside resort of Whitby, famous for its cobbled lanes and coast taverns, its atmospheric Abbey and of course as the setting from the TV series, Heartbeat!

A colourful myriad of rugged coastline, mountainous national parks and Celtic culture, Wales has everything you could wish for in a holiday. The phrase 'good things come in small packages' may be a cliché, but in the case of Wales it's absolutely true.

GREAT FOR WALKING

Criccieth (page 28) – minutes from the railway station which acts as a gateway to a myriad of stunning coastline and mountainous walks. On the door step outside our hotel is a beautiful coastal walk from Criccieth to Porthmadog and the Criccieth Castle circular walk.

Porthcawl (page 29) – join the Wales Coastal Path from Porthcawl to Southerndown Beach, explore Bryngarw Country Park, Margam Country Park and Parc Slip Nature Reserve.

Tenby (page 30) – national geographic magazine rated the Pembrokeshire Coast as the second best in the World with over 186 miles of varied coastline. Walks include Saundersfoot to Tenby, Tenby Circular or Waterwynch & North Beach.

GREAT FOR THEATRE

Llandudno (page 27) – The packed live programme at Venue Cymru includes drama, musicals, dance, stand-up comedy, live music, children's shows, talks and festivals so there really is something for everyone. Lying on a peninsula between the Great Orme and Little Orme Heads, Llandudno has two great beaches. The shingly North Shore is the busier of the two with its Victorian Pier, boat trips, donkey rides and much more. The sandy West shore is quieter with miles of sands and panoramic views of the Snowdonia mountain range in the distance. A Victorian tramway and cable car offer a route to the summit of the Great Orme (which also boasts a superb dry ski slope – one of the best in Britain). There is plenty to do both day and night and you are sure never to have a dull moment at what many would claim to be the most complete of all British holiday resorts.

The Hydro Hotel is ideally placed on the seafront close to the Venue Cymru Theatre and a short walk from Llandudno's wonderful shops, pier and Happy Valley gardens. The superb "Looking Glass Bar" and many bedrooms have views over the bay or over the town to the Snowdonia Mountains.

Just a 15 minute drive away is the nearby town of Conwy where you will find stunning scenery, the smallest house in Britain, the Bodnant gardens, Conwy Mountain and of course the iconic Conwy Castle and Walls.

CLIFFE NORTON HOTEL

Tenby, Pembrokeshire

T 01834 842333 E cliffe.norton@leisureplex.co.uk
The Norton, Tenby, South Pembrokeshire, SA70 8AA.

Tenby is a uniquely attractive resort. Its pastel coloured buildings, narrow streets, fortified walls and the quality of the light from its shimmering bays give it an atmosphere which is reminiscent of the Mediterranean. Its medieval castle was bombarded into submission by Cromwell using artillery on both land and sea and the feeling of a town whose history is much richer than most seaside resorts is very strong as one ambles around the narrow streets or stops for a drink in one of the many bars or cafes. The fifteenth century Tudor Merchants House gives an insight into life when it was a busy trading port.

Tenby has four magnificent sandy beaches and a delightful harbour which is always busy with pleasure craft and the regular ferries which serve the nearby Caldey Island monastery, a "must" to explore during your stay.

The Cliffe Norton Hotel occupies a prime position on the North Beach, affords uninterrupted views across the bay, and is just a short walk from the town centre. The rooms are tastefully decorated to complement the building's period features.

Clyde Street, Dunoon, Argyll, PA23 7HT.

Set in Scotland's first National Park, Dunoon is splendidly situated on the western shores of the Firth of Clyde, where Loch Long and Holy Loch join the sea. A traditional seaside resort, Dunoon boasts lovely gardens, the remains of a castle, a four mile promenade and a 19th Century pier with panoramic views across the Clyde. Pleasure cruises run throughout the summer months sailing to destinations ranging from Loch Goil to Largs and Rothesay. You may even catch the last sea-going paddle steamer in the world, the Waverley, which is still a regular visitor to Dunoon.

The Selborne Hotel is superbly situated looking South across the Clyde with rolling lawns reaching down to the promenade and water's edge. All the public rooms and many of the bedrooms offer uninterrupted views of the river which is a constant source of interest.

Dunoon is a great base to explore the surrounding attractions of Argyll Forest Park which is home to some of Scotland's most spectacular mountain scenery, and nearby Benmore Botanic Garden.

Achintore Road, Fort William, Inverness-shire, PH33 6RR.

Fort William, the "Outdoor Capital of the UK" is not only an important tourist centre but also a splendid location from which to explore the magnificent Western Highlands. It is situated at the southern end of the Great Glen, on the shores of the crystal clear Loch Linnhe beneath towering Ben Nevis, Britain's highest mountain. For those who do not feel quite up to the ascent of Ben Nevis, nearby Aonach Mor offers Britain's only alpine cable car, rising over 2000 feet to the Snowgoose restaurant, from where there are spectacular views of the Great Glen. The surrounding countryside has some of Britain's most spectacular scenery and its torrid history has produced over 30 battlefields in the Lochaber area alone.

Situated on the shores of Loch Linnhe, three miles from the centre of Fort William with spectacular views across the loch from all of the public rooms and most of the bedrooms, the Croit Anna Hotel offers a comfortable base in which to relax.

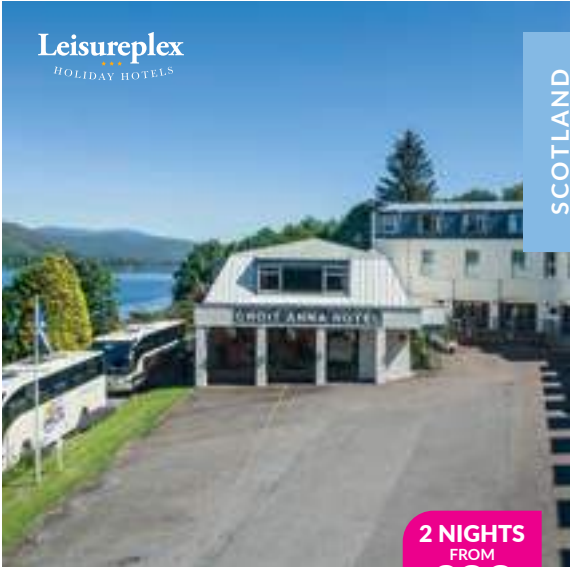

As a touring centre, Fort William is simply unparalleled: Inverness, Oban, Skye, Iona and Speyside all make superb full days out and there are lots of places within half an hour's drive including Glenfinnan and, of course, the breathtaking Glencoe.
