Lying on a peninsula between the Great Orme and Little Orme Heads, Llandudno has two great beaches. The shingly North Shore is the busier of the two with its Victorian Pier, boat trips, donkey rides and much more. The sandy West shore is quieter with miles of sands and panoramic views of the Snowdonia mountain range. A Victorian tramway and cable car offer a route to the summit of the Great Orme. There is plenty to do both day and night and you are sure never to have a dull moment at what many would claim to be the most complete of all British holiday resorts.

The Hydro Hotel is splendidly situated in Llandudno, with spectacular views over the bay. The hotel features a magnificent sun lounge, restaurant, games room and large entertainment room with dancefloor, where you will find entertainment most evenings. Many of the hotel's rooms have spectacular views of the bay or over the town to the Welsh mountains.

Tenby is a uniquely attractive resort. Its pastel coloured buildings, narrow streets, fortified walls and the quality of the light from its shimmering bays give it an atmosphere which is reminiscent of the Mediterranean. Its medieval castle was bombarded into submission by Cromwell using artillery on both land and sea and the feeling of a town, whose history is much richer than most seaside resorts, is very strong as one ambles around the narrow streets or stops for a drink in one of the many bars or cafes. The fifteenth century Tudor Merchants House gives an insight into life when it was a busy trading port.

Tenby has four magnificent sandy beaches and a delightful harbour which is always busy with pleasure crafts and the regular ferries which serve the nearby Caldey Island monastery, a “must” to explore during your stay.

Occupying a prime position on the North Beach, in the stunning resort of Tenby, the hotel boasts spectacular views across the bay from many of the hotel’s bedrooms and restaurant and is just a short stroll away from the resorts town centre. It is situated at the southern end of the Great Glen, on the shores of the crystal clear Loch Linnhe beneath Britain's highest mountain, Ben Nevis. The surrounding countryside has some of Britain's most spectacular scenery. Take a trip on the world famous Jacobite Steam Train as seen in the Harry Potter films and enjoy the stunning scenery of the West Highland Line. Inverness, Oban, Skye and Speyside all make superb full days out and there are lots of places within half an hour's drive including Glenfinnan and, of course, the breathtaking Glencoe.

In an idyllic position on the shores of Loch Linnhe, there are spectacular views across the Loch from the hotel's restaurant, bar and lounge and from many of the bedrooms. The hotel provides an excellent base in which to relax and features a large restaurant, cosy quiet lounge and a bar with dance floor, where entertainment can be found most evenings.
